HUNTERVILLE HUNTAWAY FESTIVAL

INDEMNITY & INFORMATION

By signing this form I absolve The Hunterville Huntaway Festival Committee of any liability should injury or death happen to either myself or my dog during the running of the 2011 Hunterville Shepherds' Shemozzle and I agree to keep the Committee both collectively and individually indemnified, safe and harmless from any claims, costs, damages or liabilities that may arise against them out of my participation and that of my dog in the said event.

It has been made clear to me that no roads have been closed to stage the event and that every endeavour has taken place to remove all known hazards on the course and about the obstacles involved. I am aware that the Shemozzle is a high risk event and that I take full ownership of any injury or death to either myself or my dog during the race. I also acknowledge that no third party will attempt to hold The Hunterville Huntaway Festival Committee liable for injury or death to myself or my dog and that I will not lend any assistance to any third party wishing to pursue a claim in the consequence of injury or death to myself or my dog.

Limited Entry: Enter early for guaranteed start.

All competitors enter at their own risk and are required to sign the indemnity & information form to compete.

All dogs in the race must be Huntaways that can bark on the command of the entrant.

Organisers reserve the right to refuse any entry without explanation.

Please note: By entering this event, unless otherwise advised, each entrant also agrees that the Hunterville Huntaway Festival Committee may use this information or disclose it to other organisations that may use it, in any media for future promotional, marketing & publicity purposes without any further reference, or compensation to the entrant.

Shower facilities will be available after the race at the Hunterville Rugby Club, the Domain, Hunterville.
